

Disaster Preparedness for Livestock

Assignment Sheet 1— Disaster Preparedness Kit

Do you have a Disaster Preparedness Kit? Do you have your kit placed in an area that is easy to find and pick up in case a disaster is about to hit you family goat farm? Do not wait until it is too late and you do not have a plan for you, your family and your goats. Advanced planning can make a dramatic difference in you and your goats being safe and not harmed by a disaster.

Below is a listing of some items that should be in or placed in your disaster preparedness kit. Do you have the following?

	Yes	No
Emergency contact list	___	___
Vaccination and medical records	___	___
Medication and dosing instructions	___	___
Halters & leads	___	___
Registration papers with tattoos	___	___
Water bucket	___	___
Plastic trash barrel with lid	___	___
Batteries for flashlight and radio	___	___
Duct tape	___	___
Paper towels	___	___
Disinfectants lime or bleach	___	___
Wire cutters	___	___
Knife (sharp, all-purpose)	___	___
Trash bags	___	___
Tarps	___	___
Blankets	___	___
Flashlight	___	___
Radio (solar and battery operated)	___	___
Hoof knife, nippers & pick	___	___
Portable generators	___	___
Fly spray	___	___
Gloves (heavy, leather)	___	___
Shovel	___	___
Fire Extinguishers	___	___
Come-Along	___	___
First Aid Kit for people	___	___
First Aid Kit for Goats	___	___
Tow rope or chain	___	___
Generator & fuel (gas or diesel)	___	___
Chainsaw	___	___
Axe	___	___
Hand operated can opener	___	___
Canned and other non-perishable food	___	___

Three day supply of water for people	___	___
Three day supply of feed for goat's	___	___
Three day supply of water for goat's	___	___

Review your answers. How many of the items listed above do you have on the family goat farm?

Develop a plan for purchasing the items that you marked no as not having on the family goat farm. Set a time frame of when the items will be purchased. The items will be purchased and placed at the family goat farm by _____.

Information contained in this document is part of a web-based training and certification program for meat goat producers (<http://www2.luresext.edu/goats/training/qa.html>) that was developed with funding received by Langston University from USDA/FSIS/OPHS project #FSIS-C-10-2004 entitled "Development of a Web-based Training and Certification Program for Meat Goat Producers."

Collaborating institutions/organizations include Alcorn State University, American Boer Goat Association, American Kiko Goat Association, American Meat Goat Association, Florida A&M University, Fort Valley State University, Kentucky State University, Langston University, Prairie View A&M University, Southern University, Tennessee Goat Producers Association, Tennessee State University, Tuskegee University, United States Boer Goat Association, University of Arkansas Pine Bluff, and Virginia State University.